

VOLSTEAD LAW FOES OPEN NATION FIGHT

Drive for Repeal of All Dry
Acts Opens To-morrow in Newark.

The Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, an organization which announces that it stands for "fairness, moderation and respect for the Constitution of our fathers," and which has a membership made up of men and women whose families have been known in this city for generations, will hold a mass meeting in the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark to-morrow night at 8 o'clock as the beginning of a campaign which seeks the modification, if not the repeal, of all prohibition legislation.

In literature which insisted that "the greatest joke of history" had been "perpetrated on the people of the United States and that every American was its victim," the world at large was invited yesterday to come to to-morrow's mass meeting. It was set forth that speakers of national prominence would be on hand to explain what was wrong with prohibition and show how the rights of Americans had been trampled on.

Among members of the association and who are behind its campaign for education and reform are Stuyvesant Fish, William F. Eno, Hollis H. Hunnewell, George MacCulloch Miller, Kermit Roosevelt, Seth Low, Spencer F. B. Biddle, Reginald B. Rives, Tracy Dowd, the Rev. Edward J. McGoldrick, Mgr. C. F. Thomas, Charles H. Sablin, Prince Pierre Troubetzkoy, Mrs. Cadwalader Jones, Mrs. Charles T. Crocker, Mrs. Nadine Converse and Mrs. Minnie Maden.

The association has its headquarters in Washington, and proposes to carry its campaign for a change in liquor laws into every corner of the country.

In a two column notice of its mass meeting, published yesterday in newspapers of New Jersey, the association said the meeting was to be held in the name of "liberty first." The Supreme Court, the notice insisted, had made it clear that the United States may either keep the Volstead law or repeal it. "It will be repealed," the notice continued, "if those opposed to it will join this association and let themselves be counted as Congressmen may know how many of them there are. Congress endeavors to function according to the will of the majority. Let it be known therefore where you stand."

The programme, according to the association, is what prohibition promised the people:

Empty jails, happier homes, a richer nation, improved labor conditions, better citizenship and a better America.

And this, the association insists, is what America got:

The greatest crime wave in its history, illicit liquor making in thousands of its homes, staggering taxes, added friction between labor and capital, graft and respect of all law in its enforcement of the Volstead law, and instead of a better America an enslaved America.

BULLET MISSES GEN. HALLER.

WARSAW, April 2.—Gen. Joseph Haller, commander-in-chief of the Polish armies, narrowly escaped a bullet fired through the window of a railway car recently, says the Warsaw Gazette. He was travelling from Warsaw to Posen.

RUM MEANT FOR PARTY IS SEIZED ON WHARF

Ship's Purser and Radio Man
Arrested on a Tip.

Two men, who gave their names as Robert P. Austin, purser on the steamship Lebanon, from France, and William Steele, a wireless operator, were arrested last night by Detectives Hanlon and Leary of the West Forty-seventh street station.

The detectives, after getting a tip, watched the Lebanon, which was anchored in midstream off Fifty-fourth street. A rowboat soon left the ship laden with suitcases, in which the detectives later found bottles of brandy, gin, whiskey and cognac, which the men said they were taking to a party. Austin and Steele will be held until to-morrow.

William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, protested yesterday against the complaints of the judges of Special Sessions regarding jury trials in that court for all prohibition law violators.

JENKS SOON TO QUIT APPELLATE BENCH

Will Retire as Presiding Justice to Form Law Partnership With G. A. Rogers.

Justice Almet F. Jenks, presiding Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, Second Department, will retire soon from the bench to go into a law partnership with Gustavus A. Rogers. The news came in the form of a report from Albany, where Justice Jenks recently discussed the question of his successor with Gov. Miller. He probably will be either Justice Isaac N. Mills of Mount Vernon or Justice Walter H. Jaycox of Poughkeepsie.

As Justice Jenks had wished the first word of his resignation to come formally from the bench he was embarrassed when the news gained currency. After conference with Mr. Rogers he issued a statement saying that there "is no denial on my part that preparations are under way for my leaving the bench. A more formal and complete statement will be issued Monday."

Mr. Rogers said there was "no political significance in the rumored resignation of Mr. Justice Jenks." This was in view of the gossip that the need of electing a successor to Justice Jenks, a Democrat, in November would give his party an opportunity to alight on Mayor Hylan from a renomination for his present office. This desire on the part of Democrats constantly pops up, although it is not generally believed Mayor Hylan would run a risk of election to the bench in the Second District.

MOTOR YACHT LAUNCHED.

DEMOITT, April 1.—The motor driven yacht Delphine, the largest vessel of its kind ever constructed, was launched at the Great Lakes Shipyards to-day. The yacht was begun by the late Horace B. Dodge, automobile manufacturer, and named after his daughter, Mrs. Oliver Cromwell, formerly Miss Delphine Ione Dodge. The vessel will be driven by oil burning engines.

LIFE SPARED BY FACT DRY LAW IS BROKEN

Slayer Was Drunk and Judge
Takes Due Cognizance.

Violation of the Volstead act in New Jersey yesterday saved the life of Stephen Podubri, 27 years old, of 12 Third street, Passaic, when he appeared before Supreme Court Justice James P. Minturn in the Passaic County Criminal Court for sentence for killing Andrew Baranski, 25, and Andrew Gromitz, 26, and seriously wounding Frank Makofsky, saloon keeper, of 121 Fourth street in Makofsky's saloon on December 1 last.

Podubri pleaded non vult and Justice Minturn sentenced him to life imprisonment instead of to the electric chair, which is penalty for first degree murder.

"You took the lives of two citizens and seriously injured a third," said Justice Minturn. "You have informed the Court you were intoxicated. The Court believes you, because no man in his full senses would have done what you did."

"The Court is aware, however, that some consideration should be given your case in view of the fact that society is in some part responsible for the crime you committed and society should share some of the responsibility, for without your ability to secure whiskey it is probable you would not have committed the crime."

NEW RECTOR IN BROOKLYN.

BROOKLYN, Conn., April 2.—The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, rector of St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, announced to-day his acceptance of a call to become rector May 1 of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Brooklyn.
